~RANT~ Anime is satan!

09/01/13

Okay. Who ever has a face book, go look up : Anime is satan. And Freaking screw there pages and give report, spam, and message. I can't even BELIVE that some one would do this, I under stand there's hentai, and sexual figures etc. But no reason to start a page about it! Keep your opinion to your self and they call there selfs Christians? Yeah. Well. Check the bible, your not.

Anime is Satan

Good morning, you demonic scum. It's time for me to inform you about one single infamous person from one of those pesky cartoons. His name is Lawliet from this Japanese abomination called Death Note. Lawliet is a brutal and evil human hence he doesn't even stop at sacrificing others. He even forces people to kill their children and doesn't care if his colleagues are being killed by that Light Yagami. On top of that, Lawliet eats everything he can grab not caring for the poor and his goal is to obtain the Death Note to eradicate everything he hates passionately. He is so disgusting that his parents abandoned him giving him into orphanage when he was a child- Lawliet was a twisted little brat already who feigns an intelligence he doesn't really possess.

He is a manipulator like those Japanese shows which shouldn't exist to begin with.

Anime is Satan

It's time again for me to inform and warn you about one of those satanic followers. He's from that mind twisting cartoon Black Butler and his name is Ciel Phantomhive. Ciel is a nasty spoiled brat who sold his soul to the lord of hell like y'all did by beginning to watch anime. Not only does Ciel treat his servants like dirt and slave, but also does he waste his money as if it grew on trees not thinking of others. On top of that Ciel loves dressing as the other gender- sick and giving faithful Christians like me seizures. But the worst this one eyed monster did was killing his parents and his innocent aunt by making a contract with Gods of Dead so he could freely hire Chinese people to dealing with opium. I must also add that Ciel Phantomhive is friends with Satan himself who shows up as a paedophile and gay maniac called Sebastian Michael.

All in all I have faith in you that you won't follow Ciel's path as he earned a free place in hell for serving satan. So keep watching those cartoons and follow him or repent and you'll be saved! God bless,

Anime is Satan

As I was browsing the internet to inform myself about new anime being published to stay on track about our greatest foe and the worst thing I've ever came across with in my life, I found an anime with the satanically long name ore to omae no sa o shiete yaru yo (I'll tell you what makes you and me different!), also known as "Free!". This cartoon shows 4 obviously homosexual boys swimming together which is highly disgusting. Even the cartoon's name already states that others are still different from those sinners and should be tempted to commit crimes to end in hell. Nearly every character there is male. What does this tell us? Right! Homosexuality and orgies are being glorified and this is nasty; so a sexually open scene is shown about one boy showering and showing his nude body to girls and boys watching this perverted anime which makes everyone with good habits shiver. Don't let cartoons like this turn you homosexual or defy the Bible in other ways.

Anime is Satan

Here is a popular Anime which have lead many young children to the path of perversion. "Kaichou wa Maid-sama" is only a facade to entice innocent viewers to Satan's influence disguised as a love story. This show introduces their views to sinful, adult fetishes at a young age. The female character is mostly wearing a maid outfit for her "job". Her dominating and violent personality is equivalent to a demon, which is no surprise for such a demonic show. To think that girls consider her a role model is sickening.

There is also this male character, Takumi, that uses his looks and charisma to charm young girls. But what is even more fearful is that he is able to charm girls in real life as well, which is dangerous. Being charmed by adulterous character such as him will lead you to a life of sin and eventually be subjected to Satan's influence.

To those who are sane and free from corruption find their attempt at humor pathetic,yet most converts to Satan embrace this show. This anime deserves to be desecrated to prevent the spread of its satanic influence.

Anime is Satan

There's one sick cartoon you all might and should have heard of since it's as well known as cancer and other diseases.

It's a very good example for showing you how exactly anime is satan. Its name is Spirited Away by the Devil's studio Ghibli. It is about an obsessed girl called Chihiro who's been abandoned by her parents carelessly- latter got turned into pigs by God to serve justice.

Chihiro has been left in a horrific city full of magic and crazy creatures like a huge insane spider, dragons or the witch Babayaga who apparently survived the witch hunts in Europe. But if that weren't bad enough already, Chihoro has to survive and even travel completely on her own. This makes very much sense, though, when we interpret it that that child isn't as innocent as she looks like and thus has been lead into this place so that she can experience what hell will look like and will finally recognize her shameful life she had without the Lord in Heaven unlike all of you who are reading this right now and are fans of this trash called anime.

In the end Chihiro repented and realised that she never may forget the truth about her and our saviour. So in the end she was allowed to leave hell and also she got her parents back as reward for being faithful.

You see, those who believe in God and suffer small pain will gain a big reward. Keep this in your tiny mind and finally quit wasting time on the worst thing Japaneses have created, and spend the time with your parents instead if you haven't forgotten about them already.

Anime is Satan

Another Anime that should really just be removed from this world. It's called "Full Metal Alchemist". It involves a huge amount of Satanic Powers that it literally makes me question why this Anime even exists. Two brothers trying to create monsters using the powers of Satanic circles. That's pretty much what all of the people in this show do. They draw these Satanic circles on their body,gloves, the ground and use these abilities to hurt/kill innocent people or anybody that opposes them. The two brothers also played their role in creating people that represent the Seven Deadly Sins. They even become friends with one of them.

Main characters becoming friends with a sin ? I don't need to say anymore this anime is just pure evil.

Anime is Satan

Alright now I'm borderline not sure at if you guys tell us to check out these shows just to mess with us brah. Told us to watch some other satanic cartoon ("anime") called "Oran High School Club" which features a bunch of twisted transexuals that like to dress up like the opposite gender and be with the other gender. I cant be the only one that see's that as somethin to screw with the minds of the viewers to taint they're out look on life. That ain't natural brah.

Anime is Satan

We have come across an Anime known as Mirai Nikki. Mirai Nikki or Future Dairy is another sick and twisted Anime that has no good morals or teachings its just another Satanic Anime that needs to be removed from this world. The story revolves around a guy who lives an innocent life in which he keeps to himself. His life eventually changes when he is thrown into a life or death survival game. In this game him and 11 others have to kill each other and in the end the winner takes their place as the new God.

An Anime that is nothing but blood and murder. On top of that killing people is what helps you obtain your place as God. Again nothing good only Satanic mess that needs to be removed from this world.

Anime is Satan

So apparently there are a bunch of these Anime girls that are called Yandere. Yandere are girls that are foolishly go to great lengths to show their love but secretly they are crazy psychotic people that go around killing people and causing harm onto people who don't love them. They are basically mental and yet a lot of you Anime Fans continue to say how these girls are good people and that they are good inside. That is 100% false these girls are crazy psychotic murderers and find great joy in causing brutal harm and killing people. What type of message does this show our younger generation ? If a young girl was to see these girls behavior then they think it would be okay to walk around killing people who don't love them. These types of shows are shown all the time to kids. This is why Anime needs to be removed from the world. It's teaching young girls to become killers. This is truly Satanic.

On a specific individual, the notability of black hair stands as the representation of one's path to darkness and aggression, usually brought upon by misfortune. And for red eyes, it defines their bloodshed, sense of violence, and severity through a course of actions. As previously stated a few times already, I have an addiction to antagonism because well, characters that carry out misdeeds are much more interesting. Well, Akame isn't an antagonist so it doesn't count entirely.

In today's blog, I'll be introducing my delicate characters in which are physically characterized by captivating red eyes and black hair. This specific mixture in an antagonist, or any character of that matter, makes them appear as sinister and mysterious; my favorite characteristics.

Now, this particular character has always been the utmost ideal image of being a pure threat.

Personally speaking, his contribution to gory content has been nothing but satisfactory for me. Alucard is rather unique due to his authentic reference. If you haven't learned about it, he's based on a Wallachian ruler named Vlad III, that was infamously known for impaling his victims. Despite his gruesome actions, he was actually considered a national hero in Romania. Much like the classic vampire we know in Castlevania. It's rather engaging to know the fictional character still has bits of factual information from the once-lived voivode.
